1. Presidents Report: Jen reported Secretary of Education on board to adopt National Art Standards. All writers were represented at the meeting as well as Delaware Arts Alliance. First and second reviewers were present as well. Standards will be presented to Board of Education Thursday, January 21. Dates will be determined for open forum meeting in locations throughout the state for discussion, proposal of voting and approval.
At today's meeting with the Senators and Legislatures, Jen explained use of summative and formative assessments. She also provided an explanation of the art teacher evaluation, noting the three stages of revisions they have gone through. Examples of student portraits done in September and then in May were provided as proof of a valid growth model.
